

BECOME AN ICIVICS TEACHER FELLOW

QUALIFICATIONS

1. 5th - 12th grade social studies or civics teacher in California
2. Interested in being a teacher-leader and facilitating social studies and civics professional development in your district, county or state
3. Interested in being part of a community of practice that transforms social studies and civics teaching and learning

OVERVIEW

iCivics, the nation's leading provider of civic education, is building a train-the-trainer model to cultivate a strong network of California educators with skills to provide high-quality civic education to every student in the state that is essential to sustaining and strengthening our constitutional democracy. This fellowship program creates a cohort of Teacher Facilitator Fellows who work collaboratively with iCivics, content and pedagogical experts, and each other to strengthen their civic education content, pedagogy, and facilitation skills.

After completion of this fellowship, Teacher Facilitator Fellows will receive a stipend to provide professional development opportunities to other educators in their district, county, and state.

IN THIS FELLOWSHIP YOU WILL:

- Attend a kick-off event in late fall
- Participate in monthly professional learning through webinars, coursework, and in-person Adult Facilitation Bootcamp from iCivics staff and guest presenters
- Be part of a regional community of practice learning together and supporting high-quality civic instruction
- Attend a statewide convening in summer 2025
- Become a certified iCivics Teacher Facilitator
- Be compensated $2,100 upon fulfillment of fellowship obligations, with potential opportunities to participate in other stipend work in the following years
